ADDITIONAL RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Dear Sir/Madam:

The information on your account application indicates that you do not meet IEs guidelines to open a spot foreign currency, commodity futures trading options or CFDs account for the following reasons:

_____ You are not between 18 to 70 years old.

_____ You do not have at least one year of futures or securities trading experience

_____ Your annual income is less than $15,000.

_____ Your net worth is less than $25,000.00

While IE is prepared to open your account, it is necessary to advise you to reconsider this investment. Based on your personal information and/or investment experience, spot foreign currencies, futures, options or CFDs trading might be too risky of an investment strategy. The loss in trading in these markets can become substantial. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your circumstances and financial resources. The high degree of leverage that is obtainable in futures, foreign currency, options and CFD trading because of the small margin requirements can work against you as well as for you. The use of leverage can lead to large losses as well as gains.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I understand that I do not meet the minimum guidelines to open an account as set forth by IE in the above paragraphs. However, I have considered the financial risks involved in the foreign currency, options and/or CFD trading with regard to my personal situation, and I wish to proceed with opening a trading account.
